TELEPORT FINANCIAL SERVICES s.r.o.
ANTI-BRIBERY & CORRUPTION (ABC) POLICY

Company: TELEPORT FINANCIAL SERVICES s.r.o.

Version: 1.0

Date of issue: 13 June 2024

Next review: Annual or sooner if required

1. Purpose

This Policy sets out Teleport Financial Services s.r.o.'s ("Teleport" or the "Company") commitment to conducting all business honestly, fairly and transparently. Its purpose is to:

- articulate Teleport's zero-tolerance position on bribery and corruption;
- comply with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws, including the Czech Criminal Code, UK Bribery Act 2010, U.S. FCPA and others;
- guide employees and third parties in identifying and preventing bribery, facilitation payments and corrupt conduct; and
- set roles, responsibilities, escalation mechanisms and disciplinary consequences.

2. Scope

This Policy applies to all Teleport directors, officers, employees (permanent, temporary or contract), consultants, agents, intermediaries, suppliers, and any third parties acting on behalf of Teleport in every jurisdiction where Teleport operates.

3. Definitions

- "Bribe" – anything of value offered, promised, given or received to improperly influence a business decision.
- "Corruption" – abuse of entrusted power for private gain.
- "Facilitation payment" – small unofficial payment to expedite routine governmental actions.
- "Public Official" – any person holding legislative, administrative or judicial office, including employees of state-owned entities or international organisations.

4. Policy Statement

Teleport adopts a ZERO-TOLERANCE approach to all forms of bribery and corruption. Covered Persons must never offer, pay, solicit or accept bribes, kickbacks, facilitation payments, or other improper advantages, either directly or through third parties.

5. Prohibited Practices

Covered Persons are strictly prohibited from:

- offering, promising or giving a bribe;
- requesting, agreeing to receive or accepting a bribe;
- making facilitation payments;
- providing luxury gifts, hospitality or travel that could be perceived as undue influence;
- making political contributions or charitable donations on behalf of Teleport without prior written approval;
- engaging third parties without appropriate due diligence and contractual ABC clauses.

6. Gifts & Hospitality

Modest, infrequent gifts and hospitality may be acceptable if they:

- are reasonable (≤ EUR 100);
- are transparent;
- are not cash or equivalents;
- are not intended to influence a business decision.

Anything above EUR 100 requires entry in the Gifts & Hospitality Register and Compliance Officer approval.

7. Third-Party Due Diligence

Teleport conducts proportionate, risk-based due diligence on all third parties before engagement. Contracts include ABC representations and audit rights. High-risk relationships need enhanced review and Board approval.

8. Record Keeping

Teleport maintains accurate books, records and accounts. Off-book accounts or falsified records are prohibited. Finance and Compliance ensure adequate internal controls.

9. Roles & Responsibilities

- Board of Directors – oversee and approve this Policy and receive ABC reports.
- Managing Director – ensure implementation and resources.
- Compliance Officer – develop procedures, maintain registers, monitor, investigate and report breaches.
- Covered Persons – comply with this Policy, complete training, and report concerns.

10. Reporting & Whistleblowing

Covered Persons must report suspected violations to compliance@finteleport.org. Teleport prohibits retaliation against good-faith reporters.

11. Training & Communication

All employees receive induction ABC training and annual refreshers. Completion logs are retained by HR. This Policy is published on the Company intranet.

12. Breach & Disciplinary Actions

Violations may result in disciplinary action, termination, civil or criminal liability, and reporting to authorities.

13. Monitoring & Review

The Compliance Officer monitors adherence through reviews and audits. The Policy is reviewed at least annually.

14. Approval

Approved by the Board of Directors of TELEPORT FINANCIAL SERVICES s.r.o. on 14 June 2024.
